

I'm having a really hard time figuring out where the public interest is in attempts to restrict satellite service providers from broadcasting local content such as traffic reports. If XM wants to enhance their content, that's OK with me. When I don't like what they're doing, I'll cancel my subscription. In the meantime, tell NAB to go enhance THEIR content....